Crowds flocked along sidewalks downtown and elsewhere in Darien to pick up sale items from local businesses, join contests and learn about local organizations on Thursday, part of the three-day Darien Sidewalk Sale and Family Fun Days.

There was also fun for kids, with a bouncy house and an ongoing Where's Waldo contest (many more events and activities for kids are scheduled for Friday and Saturday).

Here's what some of it looked like on Thursday:

Stores were on the sidewalks downtown, in the Noroton Heights Shopping Center, Goodwives Shopping Center and elsewhere around town Thursday with marked down items.
