

Artist Reception for Bill Fields at Darien Library, 6 to 8 PM, Friday

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Art Exhibits, Darien Library

Tagged as : Artist Reception, Bill Fields

Date : January 21, 2016

On Friday, Jan. 22, from 6 to 8 p.m. at Darien Library, join us for art, refreshments, and friends as we celebrate our latest artist on view, Bill Fields.

Artist's Statement

"I enjoy a sense of order in my photography, in capturing patterns of people or objects in their environment with the smaller elements in an image adding interest and depth to the greater view.

"My work is in color and black-and-white, depending on which style I believe best conveys a scene. I am influenced by an admiration for a number of wonderful 20th century photographers, including but not limited to Brassai, Elliott Erwitt and William Eggleston.

"I have been taking photographs since I was a boy, when my tools were a Kodak Instamatic and a Polaroid

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

---

Swinger. In this largely digital age, I sometimes still shoot film. Regardless of camera choice, my goal is producing photographs that cause someone to pause, wonder or smile."

— an announcement from Darien Library