She graduated from Pelham High School and Briarcliff College. Audrey worked for many years in the retail business and also volunteered at the New Rochelle Hospital.

She was an avid sports fan and enjoyed bowling, golf, and tennis. Audrey loved the theater and the New York City Ballet.

She is survived by her brother, Tony, of Darien, his wife, Caroline, seven nieces and nephews, and 17 grandnieces and nephews.

Audrey's friends and family will lovingly remember her kindness, generosity, and concern for others less fortunate. She displayed great courage throughout her long battle with a debilitating illness.

Audrey's family is grateful for the wonderful care she received for many years from her devoted aide, Betty Ofori.

Her life and legacy will be remembered and celebrated at a private service with family. Burial will be private.
