ski instructor in Crest Butte, Colo., where his favorite runs were Banana and North Face.

Kip was also an avid blue water sailboat racer. He learned to race the ocean by joining four good friends as a watch for his first Newport-Bermuda Race. He crewed on four more, including his last as watch captain.

Kip finally bought his own racer, a J122, named "Wily Silver Fox." He won many races but was most proud of his double-handed results with two podium finishes in the Vineyard Race and was awarded the Bohemia Trophy in the Around Long Island Race. Kip was a member of the Noroton Yacht Club and the Storm Trysail Club.

Kip taught mergers and acquisitions as well as securities litigation at the University of Connecticut Law School for four years. He served as a selectman in Darien from 2014 to 2015 and co-chaired the Connecticut Commission on Connecticut's Leadership in Corporation and Business Law from 2014 to 2016.

When Kip was given his diagnosis, he fought hard to recover so that he could live life well as was true to his nature. He won that battle, filling his time with family and friends, skiing and sailing, scuba diving and tennis, fishing and golf. Kip is survived by his wife, Britt; two children, Justin and Victoria; and brother, Jim.

A Memorial Service will be held at 11 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 28 at St John Roman Catholic Church, 1986 Post Road.
