

'Four Key Ingredients for Growing an Extraordinary Business' — Presentation Tuesday at Darien Library

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Business

Tagged as : Small Business 2018

Date : April 7, 2018

This interactive workshop on Tuesday night, April 10 is meant to show you a path to take your business to the next level in a sustainable, profitable and ultimately fulfilling way.

Are you feeling stuck as an entrepreneur or small business owner because your business has plateaued? You know your business has potential to go to the next level, you just don't know how.

Register here

You will learn:

- The 4 Key Ingredients needed to take your business to the next level
- The most important skill for any entrepreneur or business owner to master
- A critical key to solving challenging employee issues
- What to do to become the type of leader who enjoys greater success

The presentation takes place from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Conference Room. Check-in starts at 5:30 p.m.

About the presenter

Bernie Kettle is a business consultant & business growth coach with 30+ years of experience from working

Darienite

News for Darien

<http://darienite.com>

with Fortune 100 companies to entrepreneurs. He takes his clients through a 5-part business growth system, which gets them more strategic, focused & productive.

His leadership training includes participating in the Mankind Project, Landmark Forum and Journey Practitioner Program. Bernie was a certified coach with Conscious Company Media, which provides leadership advice to senior executives.

This workshop is presented by SCORE Fairfield County.