Date : December 17, 2017

Jason Daniel Torres, 26, passed away on Wednesday, Dec. 13. He was a resident of Darien at the time of his passing.

He was born on March 10, 1991 to Maria and Jose Torres. Jason was a loving son, brother, nephew, uncle, cousin, and friend. He attended Westhill High School and graduated with the class of 2009.

He enjoyed spending time playing handball and cards with his loved ones. One of his longtime passions was music. He consistently would write and perform freestyles for those who surrounded him.

Jason was kind-hearted, humble, and free spirited. He touched many lives because of his generosity and overwhelming love.

As the baby of the family, Jason is survived by his parents and four siblings, Joyce D. DaCosta, Jose L. Torres, Jasmine Rivera and Glenda L. Torres. For those in Jason's life it was known that he held his family and friends dear.
