

Land Rover Vandalized in Middlesex Middle School Parking Lot

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Public Safety

Tagged as : Darien Vandalism 2017, Vandalism Outdoors 2017

Date : April 25, 2017

A 2010 Land Rover LR4 was damaged in an act of vandalism while it was parked at Middlesex Middle School for an hour, midday, the owner told police.

A 40-year-old Darien woman had parked the SUV in the front lot of the school at 204 Hollow Tree Ridge Road between 12:15 and 1:15 p.m. on Saturday, next to handicapped parking spaces.

Two long scratches were made on both the front and rear doors on the passenger side of the vehicle, police said. No other vehicles in the lot were damaged.

Police were continuing to investigate the incident as of Monday, and they expected to check whether or not video surveillance records might provide any evidence.

The Darien Police Department website also has reports of these recent vandalism incidents. Darienite.com is asking for more information about them:

- Eggs thrown at vehicles, Allen O'Neil Drive, midnight, April 14
- Car scratched in act of vandalism, 400 block of Post Road, reported 4:40 p.m., March 12

See also:

- Vandalism Case Taken to the Court of Mom and Dad (April 20)
- Paintball Attack at Darien Train Station: Vandals Miss Commuters, Vehicles Not So Lucky (April 12)
- Vandalism Found at Ox Ridge School Field (April 5)