When Darien sponsored an outreach program to include foreign students, she welcomed Ender Kaya of Turkey into her home for his senior year at Darien High, regarding him as a fourth son.

After raising her family, she worked for years at Middlesex Junior High, commuting on her bicycle. During this period she attended St. Paul's, forming a special bond with the women in St. Paul's Bible study group.

Moving to Pomperaug Woods in Southbury in 2006, she attended the United Church of Christ for as long as she was able. During her final years, she amazed everyone with her determination and energy.

Above all, her family was her life. She is survived by her three sons, Skip, Doug and Dan, and by five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by her brilliant husband of 67 years, George Hamlin "Ham" Leonard.
