Matthew James McCurdy, 57, passed away Saturday, Jan. 6 at Bridgeport Hospital from a heart attack. He will be sadly and sorely missed by his loving family.

Born in Manhattan, Matt was the son of Walter and Marijane McCurdy. He attended Darien High School and graduated from St. Luke's School in New Canaan. He played varsity basketball for both Darien High School and St. Luke's.

He resided in North Carolina, Florida and a number of cities, including Milford, before settling in Stratford.

Matt served in the U.S. army for two years. He was a forklift operator and had many other jobs. He was an inveterate sports fan, especially the Mets and the Jets. He loved going to games and continued to play basketball his whole life.
