Any job Michael had, he would master. Mike was an accomplished chef and restaurateur. In his early years he was chef at The River Club in Wilton and went on to open his own restaurant, Tomatoes in New Milford. He moved on from that venture only to open another restaurant a few years later, when he opened Two Tomatoes in West Haven.

Mike's passion for helping people extended to his real estate career, always going that extra mile to find the right property and helping his clients get the mortgage that fits their budget. The true testament to this was that most of his clients became personal friends who sought his services and advice when they were looking to upgrade.

In Michael's spare time he was active in the New Haven community, and for a while sat on the Board of Alderman for the city.

His passions included flipping houses, traveling and rescuing animals. He would never turn his back on a stray, a rescue or any animal in need. He always felt compelled to help, both people and animals without hesitation. Beloved by those who knew him, he will be remembered as a bright, kind and loving spirit, which he shared with compassion, consideration & selflessness.

He leaves sisters Tamzin Marchese of Roxbury; Michele Arnold of Cape Coral, Fl.; Laurie Boski of Ft. Myers, Fl.; Sandra G. Newton of Fairfield; Melissa A. Newton of South Glastonbury; and brother David C. Newton of West Haven; along with many uncles, aunts and cousins.

The family wishes to acknowledge with gratitude the outpouring of condolences, hand written-letters and cards and support from all the friends that were touched by Michael.

Calling hours for Michael will be from 4 to 8 p.m., Thursday, March 16 at Edward Lawrence Funeral Home, 2119 Boston Post Road, Darien. A Graveside Service will be held on Friday, March 17 at 11 a.m. at St. John's Cemetery, Hoyt Street, Darien, for those wishing to attend.
