Starting this Friday, March 24, buses will be substituted for trains for late night service on Friday nights and all Saturdays and Sundays on four specific weekends, through May 7.

Switching to buses will allow Metro-North crews to do further work on the tracks, the rail service announced. Service to and from all four stations on the branch will be affected: Glenbrook, Springdale, Talmadge Hill and New Canaan stations.

These are the weekends that buses will substitute for trains. They'll be leaving 20 minutes earlier than the trains are scheduled to leave:

- March 24, 25 & 26
- April 21, 22 & 23
