Metro-North has new train timetables on all of its lines effective Sunday, Oct. 8.

The railroad agency says that the new timetables "feature adjustments that restore service while allowing critical infrastructure work that improves the safety and reliability of your commute."

Changes on the New Haven Line include:

A total of 16 New Haven-bound trains operating between 7:30 a.m. and 3:05 p.m. have their schedules adjusted by 1 to 3 minutes. See full details for all lines here.

New timetables will be available in Grand Central, at outlying stations, on this Web page and through the Metro-North Train Time app for iPhone or Android.
