

Darienite

News for Darien

<http://darienite.com>

Panel Discussion on Colleges With Support Services: Monday Night, April 2

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Education, Parents & Kids, Teens

Tagged as : College Preparation 2018

Date : March 31, 2018

Students with IEPs/504s and parents are invited to attend a panel discussion at 7:15 p.m., Monday, April 2 at Darien Library, which will include representatives from colleges offering support services.

The panel will share details about available academic, social and living supports. The event is expected to last until about 9 p.m. and takes place in the Community Room.

— an announcement from Darien Library

Paul Ribeiro, guidance director at Darien High School, will moderate. Darien SEPAC, DHSPA, Darien Public Schools and Darien Library are sponsoring this evening program.

Panelists will include:

College Steps at Norwalk Community College

Tim Pearson, program coordinator

Hofstra University

Julie Yindra, director, Student Access Service

Iona College

Amanda Marino, assistant director, College Assistance Program

Landmark College

Max McAuley, assistant director of Admissions

Marist College

Susan Jenkins, learning specialist/interim assistant director

Krista Ackert, learning specialist/assistant director, Office of Accommodations and Accessibility

Please RSVP to dariensepac@gmail.com