Peter Rohrbach Hill, 78, died on July 19, 2017 in the VITAS Inpatient Hospice facility in Fort Lauderdale, Fl. following a major stroke.

The son of Margaret and John Hill, Peter grew up in Darien and graduated from Hamilton College in 1960, where he won the college's Mathematics Award and served as president of his fraternity.

He then attended Columbia University Engineering School, where he earned a masters of science degree in 1962. Following graduation from Columbia, he worked for 17 years at IBM Corporation in New York and then in California as a software developer and manager.
