

Using the Internet Safely: Event Tuesday Night for Families with Teens and Tweens

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Darien Library, Parents & Kids, Public Safety, Teens

Date : September 26, 2017

For Families with children who are teens and tweens, from Grade 6 on up, Darien Library has a workshop on using the Internet safely.

The workshop is Tuesday night from 7 to 8 p.m., and you have to register, but there are still open seats as of Tuesday morning.

The digital world can be a scary place. Come learn about different strategies to protect yourself and your children online.

— an announcement from Darien Library

Darienite

News for Darien

<http://darienite.com>

Learn about scams and the signs to look out for. Discuss laws related to children and the internet. Takeaway common sense approaches to using the Internet for tweens and teens.

The program takes place from 7 to 8 p.m., Tuesday in the Conference Room at Darien Library.

Register here.