Here's what's closing for Wednesday's snowstorm, what services are changing as a result of the storm and, perhaps — if we find it unusual enough — what's staying Open, with the latest news listed first:

—Bar Method Darien — announcement on Instagram: "Check back here (or our app) for updates on tomorrow's class schedule! As of now, the 6am is ON! We will make decisions about the rest of the day's classes at least two hours before class is scheduled to start."

—The Forum on Opioids in Darien — postponed: They "but will finalize a new date with the Library ASAP," according to an announcement from the Community Fund of Darien's Thriving Youth Program (the event was scheduled to be held in Darien Library, which will be closed Wednesday)
