New Canaan police on Wednesday evening arrested three Darien teenagers by warrant following the assault of a boy earlier this month.

Brian Minicus, 18, was charged with third-degree assault and second-degree unlawful restraint; Jack Joyce, 18, was charged with disorderly conduct and interfering with an officer; and a 17-year-old was charged with conspiracy to commit third-degree assault and second-degree unlawful restraint. Police withheld the name of the third offender because of his age.

Joyce and Minicus play as quarterback and wide receiver, respectively, for the Darien High School football team, and their arrests come on the eve of the Turkey Bowl.

It isn't clear whether or how the arrests will affect their ability to play in the annual Darien-New Canaan rival football game that's held each Thanksgiving morning, or whether the third teen arrested also is on the Blue Wave roster.

According to a report from the New Canaan Police Department, at about 11:15 on Nov. 6 — a Monday, the day before Election Day — the three Darien teens showed up at the home of a New Canaan male juvenile on Old Kings Highway in New Canaan.

Minicus and the 17-year-old from Darien grabbed the victim, then Minicus placed him in a headlock while the other teen held the victim down, according to the police report.

“It was at that time that Minicus began punching the juvenile victim in the head and face,” the report said.

The assault was stopped by a friend of the juvenile victim, who was able to pull Minicus off of the juvenile and free him from the 17-year-old Darien boy who had been holding him down, the report said.

Joyce, meanwhile, created a disturbance inside the home and when questioned later by investigators about his involvement in the incident, provided false information, the report said.

Minicus and Joyce each were released on $500 bond and scheduled to appear Dec. 5 in state Superior Court in Norwalk. The 17-year-old's case was referred to the Juvenile Matters Division of state Superior Court.

Minicus and Joyce both appear to have crossed paths with law enforcement in the past.

According to Connecticut Judicial Branch records, Connecticut State Police Troop H on July 6 cited Minicus for creating a public disturbance. He pleaded not guilty to the charge, records show.

Joyce on June 27 was cited by New Canaan Police for possession of alcohol by a minor on a public street or highway. He also pleaded not guilty to the infraction.

The Darien team, at 9-0, will enter the New Canaan seeking to punch its ticket to an undefeated season.

The game is to be held at Boyle Stadium in Stamford. Kickoff is at 10:30 a.m.

Statement Issued by Darien Public Schools

Update 8:35 p.m.: Darien Schools Superintendent Dan Brenner issued this statement at 8:03 p.m.:

In anticipation of the high visibility Thanksgiving Day Football game between Darien and New Canaan and recent events in the news, the Darien Board of Education and its administration are providing the following press release:

The upcoming game has historically been among the most exciting events in any given year. It is our hope that good sportsmanship and fair play will be the hallmark of this year's contest without letting an outside issue dominate the day.

The Board of Education and school administration do not comment on the specifics of ongoing legal or disciplinary matters involving students.

As an educational institution, our mission is to educate our children as they grow into productive members of our society. We value codes of conduct, responsibility, and respect for all. We take violations of these principles very seriously and act accordingly.

We affirm our policy that participation in voluntary school activities is an honor and a privilege, which may be limited and/or revoked if it is deemed necessary by the administration based on student misconduct.

Once again, it is our expectation that all Darien students will act in a way that makes our school and community proud.

The current situation will evolve through the proper authorities. Given that there are students involved, there will be no further comment.
