

Police: Engagement Ring Became Missing from Home During Period When Contractors Were There

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Public Safety

Tagged as : Theft from a Home 2019

Date : April 15, 2019

A Darien woman's engagement ring went missing sometime between April 8 and April 10, a time period when contractors were doing work in her house on Fitch Avenue, police said.

The woman had put the ring, valued at $30,000 on or in her nightstand, police were told. Contractors who were working in the house were questioned by police, but denied they knew anything about the ring or where it could be, police said.