Saint Luke's Friends of Music and Director of Music David Pulliam are excited to present Cambridge University's Sidney Sussex College Choir in concert at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, July 14.

— an announcement from St. Luke's Parish

Founded in 1596, the Choir specializes in music of the Renaissance, having made recordings for museums, art galleries, and national libraries. The Choir has toured all over the world, from Singapore and Spain, to Austria, Malaysia, and Italy.

This current tour is taking the Choir, under the direction of Dr. David Skinner, to such venues as the National Cathedral in Washington, DC; Boston; Princeton; and Baltimore, to St. Thomas Church on 5th Avenue in New York and here to Saint Luke's.
