

70 Kids from Three Churches at 1st Meeting of 'Darien United' Youth Group

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Churches, Community Organizations, Parents & Kids

Tagged as : Darien First Congregational Church 2016, Darien United, Darien United 2016, Noroton Presbyterian Church 2016, St. Luke's Church 2016

Date : October 25, 2016

Darien United, a youth group comprised of kids from three churches, launched this Sunday with over 70 young Darienites in attendance.

---

— an announcement from Darien United

---

The group, hailing from First Congregational, St.Luke's Episcopal and Noroton Presbyterian got together to

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

---

help the kids learn that in a world that is constantly dividing us, people can put differences aside and work and learn together.

First Congregational youth minister Gary Morello helped to orchestrate the unprecedented town youth ministry, and is excited to help to “young people a platform to engage in relationships as well as learn about pure moral character.”

This was just the first meeting of what promises to be a growing group.