There may not be any fairies or magic beans at the annual Ability Beyond Gala, but it does have the power to fulfill the dream of a better life for more than 3,000 individuals with disabilities.

The “2019 Enchanted Forest” Gala will be held on Saturday, April 27 at the Amber Room Colonnade in Danbury.

This is Ability Beyond’s largest fundraising event, attracting close to 500 guests each year. The money raised will allow the nonprofit organization to continue to provide critical supports to clients in Connecticut and Westchester, Putnam and Dutchess Counties in New York.

The black-tie evening will feature both silent and live auctions, raffles, dinner, dancing and awards. Musical entertainment will be provided by The Eternity Band.

For over 60 years, Ability Beyond has led the way in providing independent housing, day programs, and award-winning employment initiatives that support and honor the dignity of people with developmental, intellectual, autism spectrum and mental health disabilities.

“The charitable contributions of everyone who attends creates opportunity, independence socialization, and joy in the lives of the people we serve,” said Jane Davis, president and CEO of Ability Beyond. “Above and John Loehr and the Ridgefield Sunrise Cottage leadership and directors will receive the Robert S. Young Humanitarian award. This prestigious recognition honors the positive contributions the recipients have made to improving the quality of life of individuals living with development disabilities in the community.

The gala will be held at the Amber Room Colonnade located at 1 Stacey Road in Danbury from 6:30 to 11 p.m.

For ticket information, please contact Stephanie Goncalves at (203) 826-3101 or Stephanie.Goncalves@abilitybeyond.org.
