

American Red Cross Babysitting Course Offered by Depot: Class Limited to 20

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Darien Depot, Parents & Kids, Teens

Tagged as : Babysitter Class 2019

Date : November 19, 2018

The Depot Youth Center will once again be offering the American Red Cross Babysitters Training Course on Saturday, Feb. 2 and Saturday Feb. 23, 2019 but only for the first 20 sitters to enroll, so get your application in ASAP.

— an announcement from the Depot Youth Center

This course is aimed at middle-school aged students (11 to 15 years old). Students will be certified by American Red Cross and receive certificates. Payment of the $100 fee (by check) is due with application.

Applications (you can find the form here for the Feb. 2 class and here for the Feb. 23 class) due no later than Jan. 16, 2019. The course, on Saturday, Feb. 2, runs from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

Drinks will be available, however, students need to bring lunch and snacks, as there are too many allergies for us to provide.

Please direct questions to Janice Marzano, Depot program director, at janice@dariendepot.com