A Darien Arts Center announcement:

Local award-winning artist Stan Pastore is currently exhibiting his artwork at the Darien Town Hall at 2 Renshaw Road in Darien. Pastore received the Town Hall Art Show as part of the prize for winning Best in Show at the Darien Arts Center's 2014 Art Show and Sale with his watercolor painting, Old Yella.

Pastore, a Norwalk resident, has been honored with numerous awards for his work and also won Best in Show at the DAC in 2006. He has received awards at the Carriage Barn in New Canaan and multiple first place awards at the Rowayton Art Center.

He has exhibited artwork at the Greenwich Art Society, the Silvermine Guild, the Darien Library and the Agin Art Gallery on Cape Cod. His work has been featured in private shows at the Whittingham Pavilion at Norwalk Hospital, and at Sterling Glen and Atria in Darien.

Pastore's works at the Darien Town Hall depict local scenes in Darien, Stamford, Norwalk and Rowayton. "I am particularly fond of the four watercolors of the historic barns at Sterling Farms in Stamford. I painted this series of barns over the course of a year from my own photographs and newspaper articles that I researched."

All of the pieces in Pastore's exhibit are available for sale and may be viewed weekdays until July 31st from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. For more information, call the DAC at (203) 655-8683.

Founded in 1975, the Darien Arts Center (DAC) is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing visual and performing arts programs and events for the community. The DAC offers educational programs in Dance, Visual Arts, Music & Theatre, & special events & live theatre performances by DAC Stage.
