Atria Darien Senior Living will showcase the works of local artist Joseph Lamorte, a career artist involved in advertising as an illustrator and art director.

A gallery opening and wine reception will be held from 5 to 7 p.m., Thursday, April 4, at Atria Darien, 50 Ledge Road.

His work, appearing in newspapers and magazines, has at times received national awards.

Lamorte currently teaches watercolor and oil painting at the Darien Arts Center. Joseph trained at Cooper Union and The New School in New York City and at the Silvermine College in Connecticut.
