Sciglimpaglia II.; four grandchildren Kristine Florio (Chris Florio), Katie Magalnick, Lauren Porell, and Adam Porell; two great grandchildren Briella and Aiden Florio.

She was predeceased by her former husband Bernard Magalnick. In addition to her family, Beverly was loved by numerous friends.

Beverly enjoyed all things glamour from her makeup, to her jewelry, to her nails and hair; Beverly was a fashionista, to say the least, and would never decline a shopping trip.

She was a caring person in nature, especially when it came to her dogs and cats. In addition to her love for fashion and animals, Beverly enjoyed a night out on the town with her husband, enjoying a show, live music, or eating at their favorite restaurants.

Beverly and Rich spent 36 years of marriage traveling and exploring the world together. Beverly will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all who knew her.
