“I am thrilled to be returning to NPC for the second year with such a special evening “We could all use some joy this Christmas season and this concert will certainly do just that,” he said. “The Broadway community is eager to perform, and audiences are hungry for it.”

This is the second concert Micciche, a member of DHS Class of 2003, has performed in at the church.

“Noroton Presbyterian Church is excited for one of our own, to return home again to share his gifts with our community,” said NPC’s senior pastor, Greg Doll. “We are delighted to be able to extend this musical offering to the Darien community (and beyond) in a year when we could all use some hope and joy.”

The performance is under the musical direction of Micciche and Dwayne Condon, Noroton Presbyterian’s director of music and fine arts.

“What a joy it is to have this collaboration with these amazing Broadway musicians and our fine NPC singers and orchestra,” Condon said. “My prayer is that all who watch this event will experience the thrill of hope and ponder what the light of Christ has brought into this dark world.”

Broadway Performers at the Concert

Meghan Picerno (Phantom of the Opera) hand-picked by theater legend himself, Hal Prince, Meghan was honored to make her highly-anticipated Broadway debut as Christine Daaé in Phantom of the Opera (where she was nominated as Broadway Replacement of the Decade, Broadway World) after delighting audiences with her performances as Christine on the world tour of Phantom, and in the U.S. premiere/first national tour of Love Never Dies.
