Carol Pietrzkiewicz Lostaglio passed away peacefully on Tuesday, Sept. 15, following a brief illness. She was 78.

A lifelong Stamford resident, she was born on April 13, 1942, to Stanley Pietrzkiewicz and Genevieve Krasniewicz Pietrzkiewicz. Carol was a kind and generous woman who especially enjoyed holidays with her family.

Carol attended Stamford Catholic High School, a member of the graduating class of 1960. She began her professional career at American Cyanamid in Stamford, working in the medical department.

After raising her children, she returned to work in various capacities, working at Atria Assisted Living in Darien and Odyssey Reinsurance in Stamford.

She loved flowers and used her artistic talents designing floral arrangements at several local flower shops, including Stamford Florist, Petals, and most recently, Flowers and Flowers by Adam Manjuck. Carol also enjoyed volunteering her time and energies at the New Covenant Food Pantry in Stamford.

Carol is survived by her son, Keith Lostaglio, and her daughters: Michelle Houle and her husband, Bob, of Newtown; Jill Lostaglio of Stamford; and Susan Lostaglio of Stamford. She is also survived by her brothers: Robert Pietrzkiewicz and his wife, Beverly, of New Fairfield; Stan (Chip) Pietrzkiewicz and his wife, Rosalie, of Stamford; and a sister, Judi Sinn, and her husband, Klem Budreckas, of Milford. Carol is also survived by her cherished grandchildren: Joshua and Sarah Houle and Meredith and Isabella Lostaglio; as well as her niece, Courtney Sinn, and her fiancée Chris Guido; and her nephew,, Eric Sinn and his wife, Emilie.

Carol was predeceased by her parents.

Family will receive family and friends on Sunday, Sept. 20, 2020 from 2 to 6 p.m., at Bosak Funeral Home, 453 Shippan Ave., Stamford. A Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated at 11 a.m., Monday, Sept. 21 at at Holy Name of Jesus Church, 325 Washington Blvd., Stamford.
