A cash register holding about $300 was stolen in a break-in at Blue Wave Taco on the Post Road, employees discovered when they got to work on Monday morning, March 18, police said.

The rear glass door of the business at 205 Post Road was shattered, apparently by a brick found just inside the door.

The employees called the owner, who reported the burglary to police at 10:29 a.m. Darien police detectives examined the scene for evidence, and an investigation is ongoing.
