Ignatius Charles Rinaldi, known as Charles and a resident of Darien, passed away on Tuesday, May 14, 2019 in New York City. He was 76.

Born on Sept. 3, 1942 in Springfield, Massachusetts, he was the son of the late Angelo and Anna Rinaldi.

Charles received an AB from Saint Michael's College and a MBA from Babson College. He worked at Merrill Lynch Capital Markets, Glickenhau and Company, Mutual of America Capital Management Corporation, Strong Capital Management, Wells Capital Management and various other investment firms. He was a member of CFA Institute and the New York Society of Security Analysts.

In his younger years, Charles enjoyed playing squash, jogging, gardening and attending Broadway shows.
