Li explains some of the rituals of Chinese New Year, teaches the audience some basic Chinese phrases, and encourages them to think about what it might have been like to grow up in a different time and place.

Registration

Please only register for one of the performances (by following these links): the first is from 10 to 10:40 a.m.; the second, at 11:30 a.m. to 12:10 p.m.

Register every member of your family (including adults) who plan to attend the event. If you do not register each member of your party in advance, we may not have available seating for them.

If you need any assistance with registering, please email Samantha Cardone at scardone@darienlibrary.org!

Library Mask Guidelines

Participants over the age of 2 should wear a mask at all times while in the Library building and in the Courtyard when social distancing is not possible. Presenters who are located more than six feet away from attendees may remove their mask to provide clear instructions. The health and safety of our patrons is paramount to us. Thank for your cooperation!

Due to the space limitations, masks are required at this outdoor program.

Weather-Related Changes

If the weather will be unfavorable on the day of an outdoor program, we will contact registered participants to let them know of any changes.
