She went on to become a consultant and project manager in Pennsylvania and Connecticut for financial institutions such as GMAC, Smart Consulting, and RBS.

She married Michael Kuchmek on April 11, 2014 in Puerto Rico. In addition to her husband of six years, she is survived by her husband of six years; her son, Christian Kuchmek; her parents, Philip Johnson and Maria de los Angeles Johnson Antoñana, and her three sisters: Anne Johnson, Kathleen Johnson and Caroline Johnson.

She will be remembered for her love of family and friends, her love of sailing, boats, a good party, and her desire to help those in need; particularly the malnourished and local food banks.

In lieu of flowers, Christine requested donations be made to local food banks in her name.
