To become an exhibiting member, an artist submits works to be reviewed by the Artist Selection Committee, which meets three times a year, in January, May and September.

Artists who are selected for three of the six RAC juried exhibits within a two-year period are also eligible for exhibiting member status. There are currently almost 200 exhibiting members.

About Rowayton Arts Center

RAC celebrates the study, creation and appreciation of the arts through classes, exhibitions and events open to all in the community. For almost 60 years, this nonprofit organization has been in the Norwalk community.

The gallery and art school overlook the scenic Five Mile River, at 145 Rowayton Ave. in Rowayton with space for regional artists to exhibit their art and a classroom for workshops and classes at all levels offered to children and adults.
