The Darien Arts Center is hosting, Unveiled, a special inaugural performance by East Coast Contemporary Ballet on Nov. 8.

The evening of contemporary dance and live music consists of entirely original works and six world premiers produced by the groundbreaking non-profit.

Dance performances will encompass classical ballet, modern, contemporary jazz, and ballroom styles, and approximately 30 dancers will perform in the 60-minute show.

The show's performances span from a historic icon's tale to musings on relationships, and from a parlor-style jaunt to a ritualistic gathering, portraying diversity in both dance and music.

Audience members are encouraged to stay for refreshments and a 'meet and greet' with dancers following the showcase.

About East Coast Contemporary Ballet

With their roots firmly planted in the community and in their devotion to the art of creation and collaboration, East Coast Contemporary Ballet presents ballets that push the physical and artistic boundaries of contemporary dance, seeking to reach a diverse audience through works viewers can relate to.

ECCB strives to fill a void as a continually active and innovative contemporary ballet company. Based in Connecticut but serving the entire East Coast, it has a wider scope than its founders or its artists, borne to be a vehicle through which art will be generated, cultivated, and shared.
