Darien Arts Center has just released its schedule of mini-classes to be held at its Open House on Tuesday, Aug. 29 from 1 to 4 p.m.

The annual Open House gives newcomers, friends of current students and those unfamiliar with the DAC, the opportunity to visit its facilities that include a black box theatre, a large Visual Arts Studio and one of the best dance spaces in Fairfield County.

All ages are invited to participate in free mini-classes in dance, visual arts and kids' theatre, find out about programs, meet DAC board members and faculty, and enjoy music performed by DAC music students and teachers.

Information will be provided about participation and volunteer opportunities with their community theatre group, DAC Stage, and Darien's Got Talent, returning in 2018.
