Jon Zagrodzky, chairman of the Town of Darien Board of Finance, will talk about the impact of state-level budget challenges at the Darien Men's Association on Wednesday, Dec. 20, 2017. The town's annual budget is $140 million.

He also will comment on broader governance issues for Darien and the state of Connecticut.

Jon said, "There will be as much levity and irreverence as a discussion of these topics permits." He has been a Board of Finance member since 2008.

He also serves on Darien's Town and Police Pension boards and the Public Works Garage Building Committee.

Jon is a member of Forman School Board of Trustees, a Litchfield, Conn., high school specializing in helping children with learning differences. He also is chief operating officer for Rhône Group LLC, a middle-market private equity firm.
