Darien Library on Tuesday officially launched its new website and catalog. Here's the announcement to get you oriented for both:

We have transformed your Darien Library experience. Aside from new email reminders for events and study room bookings, we've made it easier to discover the over 1.1 million items we have for you to enjoy.

Get more out of your Library membership.

Come celebrate our new website with a free coffee at the Café! Just ask for your coffee to be put on the Library's tab on May 10.

It's for you!

The launch of the new catalog and website are made possible via a generous grant from the Darien

The New Catalog

The catalog was soft-launched in March. Thank you for your feedback during the beta testing period.

[Here's how the new catalogue features were described in a previous Darien Library email:]

We are launching a new catalog and website! Darien Library's new catalog is now available for a public beta testing period.

The new catalog is more personalized, with automatic features to help you discover new items to love. More of the Library's offerings are accessible and visible through the new catalog.
