The Darien Library building isn't the only place the library delivers services. If you've got a library card (and sometimes even if you don't), you can use the library's resources on its own website or through its subscriptions to other online services.

Here are several suggestions from the latest Darien Library newsletter:

Many of us are adjusting to working from home, with sometimes distracting new office mates! library staff, too, are working hard from home to keep patrons connected, informed, and entertained. Below are some digital goodies that delighted us this week.
