Darien Summer Nights brings Darien native Jeff Mucciolo and his band CC: Legend to Grove Street Plaza on Friday, Aug. 25 for the latest in its summer concert series.

CC: Legend is a band devoted to the music of reggae pioneer Bob Marley.

Jeff, who plays drums, graduated from Darien High School in 1983 and is thrilled to have his band perform in their first Connecticut concert.

The band delivers an authentic rendition of all your favorite uplifting and infectious songs by Bob Marley and the Wailers.

The Carbon Copy band is a talented group of New York musicians performing an ever-evolving series of tributes to the greatest acts in popular music.

Due to popular demand—and their own passion for Marley’s irresistible, smooth grooves and inspirational “One Love” message—they keep returning as CC: Legend every summer.

Named after Marley's seminal greatest hits album, the band delivers an authentic recreation of all your favorite uplifting and infectious songs by Marley and his Wailers, as well as tunes by other artists he has inspired.
