State control of zoning and school regionalization is the topic of the next “Bring It Home!” online event on Wednesday, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p.m.

— an announcement from the Darien Republican Town Committee

Jayne Stevenson (Darien’s first selectman) and Terrie Wood (state representative, District 141) host the public conversation with these guest speakers:

—Kimberly Fiorello is a state representative for District 149 (in Greenwich and Stamford). She serves on the Education, Planning & Development and Judiciary committees.

—Scott Hobbs, owner & project executive of Hobbs Inc.

—Francis Pinkering, executive director, Western CT Council of Governments (WestCOG)

The “Bring It Home!” series is sponsored by the Darien Republican Town Committee for the benefit of all Darien residents.

The series is free, and everyone is welcome to join. No pre-registration is required.

Similar to the last “Bring It Home!” event that was given on development in Darien, this event will also be provided online as a Zoom webinar.

Viewers can obtain more specific details for accessing the Zoom webinar by visiting the Republican Town Committee website, DarienRTC.com, a few days before the event.

“Bring It Home!” is a series of informal conversations hosted by Stevenson and Wood that are intended to help inform Darien’s residents about important issues or events.

The events are also designed to answer questions from viewers and participants.
