Darien Public Schools are closing early Friday because of the day's weather, the school district has announced:

According to an announcement emailed to parents at about 11:30 a.m.:

- Darien Public Schools will be dismissing early today due to the high winds, excessive rain and the possibility of flooding and snow. All after-school activities scheduled for today are cancelled and or will be rescheduled for a later date.

Here are the dismissal times for individual schools:
