New this year, the Chamber is setting up an area for teenagers to sell their homemade goods and products. The youth entrepreneurial tent will be located in between Caffè Nero & Bankwell. The teenagers will participate Saturday only, July 16, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

“We are excited for the kids to interact with the community and experience selling and shopping locally, said Kesti Aysseh, executive director of the Darien Chamber. Shoppers of all ages will find bargains under the tents and inside shops along the Post Road.

Merchants have announced sales of up to 70% off. A list of all participating merchants and new vendors can be found on the Live Darien CT community mobile app at SHOP --> Sidewalk Sales. Visit <http://onelink.to/livedarien> to download on your iPhone or android. Free!

There will be entertainment for all ages (sponsored by Ring's End): My Balloon Guy will be located at First County Bank, Amazing Andy will be stilt-walking the streets, a Face Painter will be located at Darien Toy Box on Friday and Saturday, 11am-2pm the hosts from Now We're Talking Darien will be “Live from the
