Double Exposure Boutique, a 45-year-old high-end consignment shop in Darien, announced Monday that it's now selling its items online at e-commerce website.

"A new chapter has begun," the store's owner, Mern Palmer-Smith, said in the announcement Monday afternoon.

The announcement also said:

"The Double Exposure Boutique Online Shop will offer the same collections as in-store, giving customers access to 'best Picks' of women's clothing, handbags, shoes and accessories.

"There will be new items added to the e-commerce site weekly even though Double Exposure's physical

Curbside Pickup is available from 2 to 4 p.m., Monday to Saturday at the 1958 Post Road store.

For a $5 fee paid at checkout, the store also has mailbox delivery from 2 to 4 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Double Exposure has been in Darien for 45 years (owned by Palmer-Smith for the past 20) offering customers a way to recycle and reuse clothing, shoes and accessories. The store was a Best of the Gold Coast Winner 2019.
