“We are delighted that Darien High School is sharing this opportunity with seniors in town,” remarked Gina Blum, executive director of At Home In Darien.

“This is a great way for our seniors to celebrate the holidays and connect to the community.”

Using volunteer drivers in conjunction with their professional drivers, At Home In Darien has arranged for free transportation for seniors.

Any senior who is interested in attending the Holiday Spectrum Concert and would like a ride, please call At Home In Darien at 203.655.2227.
