

DCA's Virtual 'Quick Reads' Book Group Features 'Waiting for Eden' Discussion, July 29

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Books & Authors, Darien Community Association

Date : July 10, 2020

The next topic for the Darien Community Association's virtual summer book group is a discussion on July 29 of Elliot Ackerman's "Waiting for Eden."

From the DCA announcement:

Part mystery, part thriller, part unconventional love story, this novel explores with gravity and sensitivity the profound questions of love and fidelity, duty and honor, and how one creates a life worth living. This short book is less than 200 pages.

On Wednesday, July 29 at 7:30 p.m. a certified bioethicist will co-moderate with Esther Bushell, and offer her perspective about the issues raised.

Bushell taught English at Greenwich High School, and when she retired in 2003, she created Literary Matters and began a second career as a book group facilitator.

Literary Matters also hosts book events for authors such as E.L. Doctorow, David Brooks, Jim Lehrer, Nicholas Kristof, Jon Meacham, Lori Gottlieb, and Tara Westover.

If You Want to Participate ...

Darienite

News for Darien

<https://darienite.com>

The session will be held virtually on Zoom. A meeting link and password will be emailed the day before to all enrollees. Copies of the book are available at Barrett Bookstore.

Ticket price for the event is $15 DCA members/$20 public. To support the DCA and events like this, please contribute if you can when you register.

Register online by Monday, July 27 at dariendca.org, or contact the DCA at 203-655-9050 extension 10. Enrollment is limited to the first 24 people.