To the editor:

A vote for Selectman Republican candidate Kip Koons is a vote of competence. Kip is a lifelong Darienite and is part of the volunteer group of residents that continues to keep Darien a well-managed town.

He understands that as a community we need the best schools, local business and a commitment to the environment and family.

I have had the pleasure of co-chairing the Ox Ridge Elementary School Building Committee with Kip. His focus has been on getting the job done as a team and building the best school for the Ox Ridge community.

His ability to get the right people focused on a specific project task, then come together as a team to discuss and make decisions based on clear information has kept the project on schedule.

Sincerely,

Vice Chair Darien Board of Education

Co-Chair Ox Ridge Elementary School Building Committee
