

Darienite

News for Darien

<http://darienite.com>

Documentary Thursday Afternoon on Jazz Legend, Darien Resident, the Late Gerry Mulligan

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Darien Library, Film

Tagged as : Gerry Mulligan

Date : February 6, 2018

Darien Library will screen a documentary, "Listen: Gerry Mulligan," on the Jazz legend who spent the latter part of his life in Darien, dying here in 1996 at the age of 68.

The film, which begins at 1:30 p.m. in the Community Room, is a beautiful and interesting documentary," according to Darien Library's announcement, which goes on to say:
Darienite News for Darien

<http://darienite.com> the artist himself; performing, interviewing and teaching, as well as interviews with friends and musicians, and insights into the depth of his musical genius, by Jon Newsom, then “Chief of Music” at The Library of Congress, Dave Brubeck, Wynton Marsalis and others.

Mulligan's papers were donated to the Library of Congress, and in 2009 the library placed Mulligan's saxophone on permanent exhibit, according to the Wikipedia article on the musician.