Date : June 4, 2020

Donald Gallo, a lifelong resident of the Cove section in Stamford, died Saturday May 9, 2020 after a brief and brave battle with cancer.

Donald was known for the joy he found in the outdoors and his love of nature. He was frequently seen x-country skiing in Cove and walking in the bird sanctuary.

He was a longtime staff member and retired from Ring's End Lumber in Darien.

Donald is survived by his sister Mary Jane Neils of Plantation, Florida and his brother John Gallo also of the Cove area.
