Double Exposure Consignment Shop Moves, Old Space To Become a 3-Month Pop Up Shop

Author : David Gurliacci

Categories : Business

Tagged as : Double Exposure, Double Exposure Home

Date : August 23, 2018

Due to the pending demolition of two prime retail blocks in downtown Darien, Double Exposure Consignment Boutique has found a new home.

To insure a bright future for her popular 20-year-old shop, owner Mern Palmer-Smith searched for four years until she found its new location at 1958 Post Road, a light-filled space she was able to design to her own specifications.

— an announcement from Double Exposure Consignment Boutique

Although the timing was not ideal, she chose to make the critical decision to rent the space even though there would be a significant overlap in the two leases.

Ever practical and creative, Ms. Palmer-Smith is reimagining the shop's former space at 1090 Boston Post Road. With three months left on its lease, the store is undergoing a transformation.

Introducing 'Double Exposure Home'

A call to arms to her beloved customers, long-time consignors and local decorators has resulted in the creation of "Double Exposure Home," a refreshing new pop-up shop featuring a wide variety of consigned wares from antique to modern — furniture, fine paintings, home decor items, collectibles and much more.

Double Exposure Home will open its doors at 1090 Post Road on Saturday, Sept. 1. The pop-up will be open until the end of November 2018 when Ms. Palmer-Smith's lease is up on the space.

Shop hours are Wednesday to Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday and Tuesday by appointment only. Closed on Sunday.

Consigned furnishings will be accepted throughout the three months; must send photos for review and delivery of approved items are by appointment only.