Several cases of energy drinks were stolen from the Exxon convenience store/gas station at 1358 Post Road (next to Shake Shack) last week, police were told.

But you wouldn't exactly call it shoplifting.

It didn't happen in the shop — the cases were stored in a gated area behind the business.

A video surveillance recording shows that at 1:11 a.m. on or before Thursday, Oct. 24, three suspects climbed the fence and threw cases back over it.
