Five unlocked vehicles were entered overnight last Wednesday to Thursday, all unlocked and outside of homes at four addresses on Fitch Avenue, according to police. Nothing was taken from any of them.

Over the next night, another vehicle was entered a block over, on Dickinson Road — that vehicle also was unlocked and, again, nothing was reported taken.

Here's a map showing each address where a vehicle was entered.

Both streets are in Noroton, near Town Hall, and someone walking could pass by each house within five minutes, according to Google Maps (although, again, the Dickinson Road incident was reported a day later and apparently took place the night after the three on Fitch Avenue).

Here are the addresses where the vehicles were parked, according to a police announcement on Monday:

—88 Fitch Ave. — a 2018 Lexus SUV, parked outside at 3 p.m. The victim told police at 12:58 a.m., Thursday that it had been entered.

—84 Fitch Ave. — 2019 Subaru Outback; reported at 7:14 a.m., Thursday.

—80 Fitch Ave. — both a 2011 Lexus SUV and 2017 Ford Explorer were entered; reported at 7:13 a.m., Thursday.

—34 Dickinson Road — a 2002 GMC Yukon, reported at 3:27 p.m., Friday, Jan. 28
